SHERIFF IS ROUTED

By BENSON PRATT

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Herrin, Ill., Sept. 4.—Williamson county awoke today to find itself in the grip of a strong hand of authority and it is still a little bewildered by its sudden and somewhat dramatic lesson in law enforcement.

That lesson was given last night when a man learned his methods in the "devil dog" Marines, quietly left his place at a dinner table, took "bloody Williamson" by the neck and said in substance:

"You watch your step."

This morning the community is "watching its step."

The man who gave the order is Captain Harold Bigelow, Company I, Illinois national guard, of Salem, Ill., commanding the militia detail of 17 men left at Herrin by Adjutant General Carlos E. Black.

Captain Bigelow laid down a "peace program," which is essentially as follows:

Both factions in the county's feud are still excited. Unless each is careful, either side may do something to regret. Therefore, each side must come where the difference can be settled by arbitration, keep members of the opposing factions apart.

"The first man who does anything this suggestion will hear from me," Captain Bigelow told both sides, and they knew he meant what he said—he is that kind of a man.

The thing which precipitated the action is supposed to have been the appearance in Herrin last night of Ora Thomas, deputy of Sheriff Galloway, who, with Galloway, is blamed by the opposing faction for much of Williamson county's trouble. He was wounded in last Saturday's rioting in which six were killed.

Word of his presence in Herrin spread about the city like wildfire. When he visited the hospital of Dr. J. T. Black, close friend of Galloway in which Herman Phemister, an "anti-killer," was wounded, groups of men gathered about the institution. The hospital, which is reputed to be used as a haven of refuge many times by Galloway, has on numerous occasions been "brought up" and as more and more men gathered near it, the situation again became tense.

Then Captain Bigelow heard what was going on. He left his dinner table and went to the hospital. He dispersed the groups gathered there and then went looking for Thomas, who had left before his arrival.

"Get back to Marion," was his order to Thomas, and Thomas "got."

Not satisfied, Captain Bigelow followed. There was a brief conference with the sheriff.

"Stay on your own side of the fence until this excitement dies down," he told the sheriff. "Keep your men here in Marion and don't come to Herrin."

The sheriff promised.

Discussing his plan later, Captain Bigelow said:

"At present the feeling here is too tense. It would require only a spark to start the powder train. I am going to do what I can to quench that spark. I intend to recommend that troops be kept in Herrin until after the preliminary hearing of Dr. Black on the murder charge Sept. 12. I have made no threats and I intend to make none but you can say for me that law and order will prevail."

This morning, the coroner's inquest into the killing Saturday was resumed.

POPULAR COUPLE MARRIED AT HOWARD

Roland M. McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McDowell, of Woodland, Pa., and Miss Isabel E. Meador, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Meador, of Clearfield, Pa., were united in marriage by the bride's former pastor, Rev. Arthur A. Price in the Methodist parsonage, at Howard, Pa. Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 2nd, 1924. The ring ceremony being used.

Mr. McDowell is employed by the P. R. R. company at Woodland and is a highly respected young man.

Miss Meador is the efficient bookkeeper at the H. J. Flegel and sons clothing store of Clearfield and a very highly esteemed young lady.

They will visit cities in Pennsylvania and New York States on their honeymoon trip. They have the best

BOSTON IS NEXT STOP OF WORLD FLYERS; HOP OFF TOMORROW

On Board U. S. Cruiser Richmond, off Pictou, Nova Scotia, Sept. 3.—(By wireless to International News Service.)—Lieutenants Lowell Smith and Erik Nelson, United States Army aviators, who are on the last long lap of their round-the-world flight, rested here today while their planes were overhauled and minor repairs were made.

This is the flyers' last stop before reaching United States Soil. They hope to hop-off for Boston, 520 miles away, tomorrow morning or Saturday.

"It will be good to be flying over Uncle Sam's territory once again," commented Smith.

The 420-mile hop from Hawks Bay to Pictou was made in six hours and 26 minutes, the flyers arriving at 4:33 o'clock Eastern Standard time. Part of the flight was made through a rain storm but with favorable wind blowing from behind.

When Smith and Nelson leave Pictou they will be accompanied by Lieut. Leigh Wade, who fell into the sea between the Orkney Islands and Iceland. A plane is awaiting at Pictou to replace the one lost at sea.

Keating Youth Awarded $25 For Thoughtfulness In Reporting Trouble

All corporations are not altogether heartless and soulless, as some of these "soap box orator statesmen" want you to believe at times. This is often substantially attested to by the action of some of these corporations which "come within" our own knowledge. A case of this kind occurred today in our reckoning.

On June 30th last, as John Burfield, the young son of N. Y. C. Track Foreman Burfield at Keating, was walking along the River Line track in that section, he happened to note a break or crack in one of the rails. The lad found the break a few minutes before the afternoon passenger train traveling toward Clearfield was due. Knowing that a wreck was bound to occur if the train reached that broken rail, the lad ran to the house of W. E. Lananger, a telegraph operator who lived some distance away. Lananger, who was on night turn, was sleeping at the time, but Burfield told Mrs. Lananger of the state of affairs and asked her to awaken her husband, as his help was needed.

Lananger was apprised of the situation and hurriedly arising got to the place where the rail was broken just in the nick of time to flag the passenger train and avoid a wreck.

Trainmaster Phil Barrow happened to be a passenger on the train and he at once reported the matter to his superiors. Yesterday Mr. Barrow received a letter from Trainmaster W. A. Hamler at Jersey Shore, enclosing a New York Central check for $25 in favor of John Burfield, the letter directing Mr. Barrow to present same to young Burfield with the thanks of the New York Central as an appreciation of his thoughtfulness and prompt action.

Last night was the girl's first performance of the act in public. She joined the show originally as a chorus girl but pleaded with the management for a chance to show her diving skill. They were impressed and the diving scene was added to the show.

Miss Laura Iryin of Lock Haven left for Pottersdale, where she will teach after spending a week with Mrs. C. F. Derrick and Mrs. James Thompson, of this place.

We Won The Pennant, Now Let Us Be Sports And Make Up Deficit

The Clearfield baseball team won the pennant in the C. & C. League this season, the first for this league. The boys "brought home the bacon" in fine style and conducted themselves at all times, both on and off the field, in a highly creditable manner.

The team was composed entirely of "home talent" and played a good baseball as a lot of those expensive semi-pro and "has been" teams of the past. The players were promised a small remuneration for each game, which was paid out of a small fund contributed before the season opened and the surplus gate receipts after the expenses of the home games were paid.

By reason of the three weeks of no home games due to wet weather, the club got in the hole financially to the tune of about $500 and the business management of the club is confronted with the problem of securing or making up this shortage in order that the laborer may be paid his hire and all outstanding obligations taken care of.

To that end the fans who enjoyed the game and all public-spirited citizens who appreciated what the boys did for old Clearfield in the League, are requested to show their appreciation of the efforts of these young men—every man a worker who needs his daily wage, by contributing toward this needed fund. It won't take many or very large contributions, but the sum should be made up at once. Fifty men at $10 apiece or one hundred at $5.00 each will solve the problem. Or more contributors at smaller amounts will do it. But at any event it should be done and done quickly at that. Who will be the first to start?

President Pearce or Business Manager Haggerty will receive your contributions or you can send or hand them in at the Progress office. Let us all get busy quickly and discharge this obligation against the town.

At the present time, said Borah, "The Presidential contest in the middle west is between President Coolidge and Senator La Follette, both have strong followings among the voters."

"Mr. Davis is not yet very well known throughout the west. He has started with his handicap and he is noticeable in the present situation."

Borah declared the voters of the west were rather apathetic about the presidential race at the present time. "The west has suffered from a fearful drought and the people are more concerned about their personal fortunes," he explained, "when the present agricultural situation abates I believe the people will take a real interest in the race. I expect the race in the campaign to be very tense and up until election day."

Borah came to Chicago to organize the Senate's special campaign fund investigating committee of which he is chairman. Up until the present time, Borah said, none of the three presidential campaign committees has made any progress in a financial way.

Fifteen years ago they heard he was dead and have mourned for him since that time.

This year when he returned to Jersey Shore he had the experience of Rip Van Winkle trying to find some of his family or even anyone who knew them. Finally he was told a cousin of his lived in the town. He called on her and found her to be Mrs. Burton Rowles. After he had succeeded in convincing her that he was not dead he was able thro her to locate the rest of his family, several of whom live in Clearfield. The telephone message from Mrs. Rowles to Mrs. Henderson stating that "your dead brother is here" gave her a decided shock.

Mr. Missimer is proving that he is not a "dead one" by enjoying life to its utmost and especially by renewing his family ties and old time friendships.

BORAH SAYS FIGHT IN WEST IS BETWEEN ROBERT AND CALVIN

By ARTHUR STROWE
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1924, International News Service)
Chicago, Sept. 4.—The Presidential contest in the middle west now lies between Calvin Coolidge and Robert M. La Follette.

Senator William E. Borah, noted independent leader, made this declaration today in an exclusive interview with International News Service.

Borah based his statement upon a first-hand survey of political conditions throughout the agricultural west. He declined, however, to predict the outcome in November.

Borah indicated that John W. Davis, the Democratic nominee, was running a poor third but he emphasized the fact that his views were based upon present conditions.

He voiced the opinion that the pending speech-making tour of Davis, thru the corn and wheat belts might materially increase his strength and change the political alignments.

This survey of the Presidential race west of the Mississippi was the first political interview given by Borah since he flatly rejected the Republican presidential nomination after it was tendered him by leaders at the Cleveland convention. At that time Borah declared he desired to remain in the Senate and would confine his political activities in the coming campaign to his own race for re-election.

"At the present time," said Borah, "The Presidential contest in the middle west is between President Coolidge and Senator La Follette, both have strong followings among the voters."

'Fun' On The Highway Is Pretty Costly To Bunch Along The Moshannon

Pennsylvania's state highways, in Clearfield county at least, are going to be made safe for Democrats and everybody else for that matter, if Constable Emil Carlson or the Fourth Ward, himself a valued employee of the State Highway Department, can make it so. Constable Carlson is seeking to that motorists obey the motor laws while cavorting about over Clearfield county.

The latest Clearfield county residents to feel the grip of the strong arm of the law for getting "stuck" on the highways, were a bunch of motorists from the Cooper and Morris sections. On Thursday last a party consisting of William Lord and David Lord, of Allport; Fingle Segerpalm, of Winburne; John Stonebreaker, of Hawk Run, are said to have had a lot of fun on the road between Kyrletown and Moshannon. One of their tires had a puncture and while repairing it the "very funny" young men are said to have made it a practice of stopping every motorist happening along.

Road Foreman Kephart and three of his crew came along and were held up by the tire fixers. The men were alleged to have been drinking and Malloy represented himself to be a state policeman. When Kephart requested him to show his badge Malloy said he didn't have one but could take the road foreman up on the bank and kick him. Kephart secured a pick handle and was about to "clean house" with the gang when wiser counsel on the part of his men prevailed and hostilities were averted.

Information was made against all six men and all, with the exception of Segerpalm, who is away from home, were arrested by Constable Carlson yesterday, and when taken before Justice Chorpene each paid a fine and costs amounting to $17.50.

A further charge of impersonating an officer was lodged against Malloy and he was remanded to jail in default of bail.

BLAINE IS WINNER IN WISCONSIN BY A 60,000 MAJORITY

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 4 (INS.)—Victory to all except one of the candidates bearing the stamp of approval of Senator Robert M. La Follette was conceded today with returns from Tuesday's State primary election virtually complete.

In the gubernatorial race, figures for 2,435 of the state's 2878 precincts gave Gov. John J. Blaine, La Follette's candidate, 212,035; Arthur C. Hiest, 147,062 and Lieut. Gov. Corning 23,418.

In the fifth Congressional district where L. A. Braun was nominated to contest the seat of Victor Berger, Socialist, La Follette met his only defeat.

Rotarians Given Lesson In Optimism By Youth Blind Since 4 Years Old

Clearfield Rotarians were given a lesson in optimism last evening at their regular weekly meeting at the Jordan, the teacher of such lesson being Kenneth Gearhart, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gearhart, of near Bigler, who was introduced by P. A. G. Thurston.

Young Gearhart, a strapping big lad, has been totally blind since four years of age as the result of falling and running a knife blade in one of his eyes. Despite what we ordinarily regard as a heart-crushing handicap, the young man has pluckily made his way in the world for the past 15 dark years very much as the lad with sight has done. He has acquired both a common and a high school education and he expressed it in talking to Rotary last evening, has got his full measure of fun and pleasure out of the world. He spoke cheerfully of his efforts to make his way in the world and gave a most interesting talk on his experiences, his ability to ride a bicycle over the country road between his home and the village of Bigler, more than a mile distant, together with his experiences at the Overbrook School for the Blind, Philadelphia High School, and in the Philadelphia School of Osteopathy, where he has been a student the past year as the start of a four year term. At the completion of his college course and the securing of his degree or diploma, the young man expects to open an office in Clearfield for the practice of his profession.

During the course of his remarks, the young man explained the Braille system, used in the educating of the blind and made a bit with his telling of how the blind "saw."

FIFTIETH ANNUAL COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION HEARS REVIEW OF FIFTY YEARS OF STEADY MARCH FORWARD

N. E. Shimmel of West Decatur Is Elected To Head The Association During 1925; Held Two Day Session.

TRIBUTE TO S. C. WATTS

The semi-centennial convention of the Clearfield County Sabbath School Association closed its business at Trinity M. E. Church yesterday afternoon by adopting a recommendation to the executive committee calling for the appointment of a county held worker. This recommendation was adopted as a part of the report of the nominating committee and was made with the idea that the work of this field worker during the coming year would make the next county convention greater in scope and interest than the one just past or any held previously. Appointed by the officers of the County Association and paid by this association, the field worker will visit Sunday Schools, arrange district conventions, and point the work of the year toward the next county convention, which will be held at Morrisdale.

Officers for the coming year were elected in accordance with the report of the nominating committee, as follows: President, N. E. Shimmel, of West Decatur; vice president, H. B. Powell, Clearfield; recording secretary, Rev. J. P. McCurdy, Clearfield; corresponding and statistical secretary, Miss Stella Sankey, Goshen; treasurer, R. M. Haney, Clearfield; Superintendent of the various departments elected were: Administration, Rev. B. P. Hilbish, Mahaffey; Children's Division, Mrs. A. B. Lansberry, Woodland; Young People, Rev. J. T. Gindelsberger, Brisbin; Adult, E. L. Peterson, Clearfield; Home Department, Mrs. Vance Welch, Clearfield; Temperance, Mrs. R. L. Cathcart, Clearfield; Teacher Training, Rev. Walter H. Williams, Houtzdale; Education, Rev. William L. Armstrong, Clearfield; Missionary, Rev. E. Roy Hauser, Clearfield; Publicity, Rev. W. L. Cruthers, Clearfield.

Walter E. Myers, Secretary Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association made the address at the closing session of the convention last evening. His talk on the need of trained leaders and the work of the trained leader carried a message of optimism for the task of the present day Sunday School.

The 50th Annual Sunday School Convention of Clearfield County was called to order in Trinity M. E. church Tuesday, September 2, at 10:30 a. m. with President N. E. Shimmel in the Chair. A short devotional service was held and Dr. John C. Collins, lead in prayer. The President made his annual address and H. B. Powell, vice President of the association, made a short address of welcome. Dr. Valentine spoke on The Near East Relief and State Field Worker B. A. McGarvey made a short address.

Tuesday Afternoon
Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. W. L. Cruthers, pastor of the Baptist Church.

A Memorial service was held for our late beloved President, S. C. Watts. The principal address was made by Dr. John C. Collins who was Mr. Watts' pastor for a number of years. Among other things, he said: "It is no little thing for a community to produce a man like S. C. Watts. He was unusual. I regarded him as the first man in the Curwensville Methodist Church. We began to discover his worth when he had gone away from us. We have not found a man to be what he was and do what he did. Life might have been a little easier for him if he had had a sense of humor. His home was in the moral realm and there he achieved victories for his Master."

"He was a man of mentality. He was an editor, writer, farmer, musician, traveler, and preacher. He was a great thinker and possessed an intellectual honesty. He excelled as a teacher. He thought through a number of moral and religious problems. He was kind and loving and sympathetic toward those who did not think as he did."

"There was not any man in the county who gave more time to the Kingdom of God than he did. He was liberal with his money. He was a father. He was broad in his sympathy. He was a good man in the high sense of the word. He was fine gold all through. His moral integrity was like reminded me more of my Master than any man I ever knew.

Brief tributes were paid to his memory by Mrs. Ferguson, H. B. Powell and Miss Nellie Bird. A number of appropriate hymns were sung and Rev. Walter Williams lead in prayer.

Rev. A. M. Greenfield, Boy Scout Executive from the Philadelphia district was introduced and made a short address. It is pretty near time for the Church to give the boy the thrill of the Church. The boy has his own ideas of religion. He wants something tangible, something that he can feel. The boy is not reading his Bible half as much as he is reading you.

R. A. McGarvey, State Field Worker, occupied the last period. He conducted a general conference. Our task is to help the teachers find themselves.

Rev. O. B. Poulson made the last address. He emphasized fixed habits of the mind.

The Chair appointed the committee on nomination Rev. B. F. Hilbish, Mrs. Reas Spackman, Rev. M. S. McKitt, H. L. Shaw.

The benediction by Rev. J. P. McCurdy brought the session to a close.

Tuesday Evening
The devotional exercises were led by Rev. C. K. Gibson, pastor of the Eleventh Street M. E. Church. The Chair announced the following committees:

Resolution: Rev. N. B. Smith, Nellie Bird, Rev. J. E. Gingerberger. Place of meeting: H. B. Powell, and J. V. Knepp.

There were two special musical numbers of exceptional worth, a duet by Mrs. Paul Stauffer and Mrs. Emmott Harder; a solo by Mrs. Keith Davis with violin Obligation.

Two strong addresses were delivered by B. A. McGarvey, Training our Future Leaders; Rev. O. B. Poulson, "Introducing our great Com-

PENNSY-GRAMS

Pittsburgh—Little Jean Layman, year old daughter of William Layman of Braddock, is today again playing with her baby sister June, aged 1, after falling 22 feet from the roof of her home yesterday. The child only suffered a few bruises about her arms and body. Jean tossed her sister's milk bottle from the roof and while looking over the edge of the roof lost her balance and fell to the ground, landing among the broken bits of the bottle. When picked up she was only scratched a little and wondered what the fuss was all about.

Butler—When her husband completes his six months prison term December 1 for violation of liquor law, Mrs. Mart Benchuk will begin her one year sentence in the Allegheny county workhouse on the same charge. After Judge Henningsen fined the woman $800 and sentenced her yesterday her husband could come home and care for their two children and their home.

Conneaut Lake Park—George Brown, of Meadville, is dead here today. The automobile in which he was riding was struck late yesterday by a Meadville and Linesville train at a crossing near here killing him almost instantly, according to train officials.

Philadelphia—Two bandits entered a haberdashery here yesterday just at closing time forced three clerks and a customer into a rear room and then bound them with neckties from the stock. They got $60 in cash and a quantity of clothing.

Philadelphia—Their faces covered with burned cork, four bandits held up three members of a Building and Loan Association as they emerged from a meeting late last night and robbed them of $2,100 in cash and a number of checks and loan certificate books.

Philadelphia—A new war on bootleggers was started by Safety Director Butler yesterday co-operating with Federal officers. It is said an attempt will be made to capture six big alcohol dealers believed to be supplying bootleggers from goods obtained on government permits.

Washington—Willbur Mickey, 12, and Charles Goff, 7, are said to be recovering today from snake bites received last night near here. The two boys were attacked by a copperhead snake when they stepped on the reptile in the dark. Both youths were bitten between the ankle and knee. Dr. W. J. Hawkins who attended the victims said they were out of danger.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Bad eyes make bad men! Fifty per cent of the criminality and insanity of the United States could be eliminated if everybody received proper eye treatment in childhood. Every advance in civilization increases the proportion in criminals and weaklings—all directly traceable to improper care of the eyes.

More than 60 per cent of elementary and secondary school children in this country have defects that need correction. Six million children or 25 per cent of the total public school population, are suffering from impaired vision to such an extent as to handicap them in acquiring an education.

Ninety per cent of the industrial accidents as well as motor car train wrecks are due to poor eyes.

These are some of the startling statements in the recent report of the Eye Sight Conservation of America, which has completed an exhaustive investigation of the condition of people's eyes in this country. In other words, they believe that only by discovering and correcting eye defects in the youth of the nation can it be saved from optical and therefore mental deterioration.

With an increasing higher specialization in occupations, high illumination in cities and our mechanical devices, we are rapidly building up a condition of strain which can only result in more criminals and insane, experts say, unless we adopt some method of overcoming this tremendous strain which the eyes were never fitted to stand.

Eye strain brings bad health, nervousness, insomnia and other conditions which may result in insanity. Neglect of the child's eyes when he is in the earlier grades of school is apt to effect his entire health and career, the Council avers. Unable to keep up with the other pupils, the child usually drops out of school before he has completed the elementary grades. Without the training or discipline of school life, knowing no trade, and always irritated by eye strain, he becomes a hanger-on on the fringe of society, susceptible to any temptation for making easy money. Neglect of eyes in youth is held responsible by the Council for more than the inmates of our penal institutions.

Yet the school authorities remain largely unaware of the dangers of defective vision among school children. The Council found that, on an average, only 17 per cent of public school children received eye tests in 1923. This average for the entire country would be considerably below 17 per cent.

BEFORE TWINS WERE BORN

Was Very Miserable. Felt Lots Better After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

WYOMING, Wisconsin.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my twins were born because my sister used it and recommended it to me. I was so I could scarcely go about my daily work I was in such misery. But after I began taking the second bottle I was feeling lots better. I took three bottles and a half before I was confined and finished the bottle while I was in bed. I got up feeling fine and have taken care of the twins alone ever since. I recommend the Vegetable Compound highly and will sing its praises in the future."

Mrs. Ida G. Gartz, Wyoming, Wis. It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after child-birth, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother both before and after child-birth. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It can be taken in safety by nursing mothers.

SPORT NEWS

New York, Sept. 4 (INS).—The hot pennant fights in the two big leagues remain practically stationary, after yesterday's games, with the Yankees in the American League and the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League registering slight gains.

Today the New York Giants still lead the procession in the older league by the margin of a game over Pittsburgh but Pittsburgh lost half a game to the fast coming Dodgers when the latter scored a double barreled victory over the Phillies while the Pirates were winning only one from St. Louis. The Dodgers are now only half a game behind the Pirates and a game and a half back of the leaders.

The Yankees crept up on the Senators in the American League by winning from Boston while the Senators were idle. The latter lead the league a game.

The on-rushing Dodgers made it 11 straight by taking another, double-header from the Phillies 7 to 6 and 7 to 0, and are now less than two games astern of the Giants. Dores allowed only two hits and Wheat collected two homers in the nightcap.

Dr. Neft was called into consultation for the ailing Giants and beat the Braves, 4 to 1, holding them hitless after the first inning and keeping the champions in front by one game.

Pittsburgh clung to second place by mauling the Cardinals 14 to 1, but failed to gain on the Giants.

The Yanks crept up to within a game of the lead by trimming the Red Sox 11 to 6, while Washington was idle. Beall, the $50,000 recruit, did party is one Charles Kurtz, of Altoona, but when that name appeared in this paper some time ago the intelligent compositor added an "R" to Kurtz and of course that made it Kurtz and Charley has been sandbagged by his safe, sane and conservative old party friends ever since. So don't forget that the politician is Kurtz, of Altoona, and not Kurtz, of Clearfield.

well until he went out for a new altitude record in the night.

Detroit jumped into the race again by booting the White Sox twice, 6 to 2 and 6 to 4.

HORSE SHOE CHAMPIONSHIP RACE GETTING CLOSE

The Singles Horse Shoe Tournament for the Championship of Clearfield is half finished, and no doubt will be a close contest towards the end of the series. It is hoped to have the closing games held during the Fair at the Clearfield Driving Park.

Tonight two of the contests and important ones, will be held: Wm. H. Witherow vs. Blake Shugarts and James Hudson, Jr. vs. Les Cowdrick. Darkness in the early evening has hindered contests lately games being held Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, but tonight at dusk the electric lights will be turned on so that all the games can be finished in one evening.

The public are invited to witness the contests tonight beginning at 8:30 o'clock at Wither Park in rear of the High School building. All horse shoe players are especially urged to come as there will be a special meeting following the contest in the Y. M. C. A. building to plan for indoor pitching contests this winter.

Compare Milk-Drinking Nations With Others

Comparisons are odious but here is one striking in the extreme. The Swedish race are large stalwart men—men high in intelligence, sturdy of body, alert of mind, a nation which has had its place in world matters almost since the beginning of time. Then the Japanese—small, undersized as to body, until the past decade considered as a mentally undeveloped nation which was in darkness.

Look into the common foods of the two nations and you find that the chief article of diet of the Swede is milk and of the Jap, fish and rice. The Swedish child gets milk from its earliest infancy and is given milk through the growing years and even in manhood and womanhood, milk is the mainstay of their diet. The Jap gets his bodily needs from more sources—minerals from fish and starch from rice. Neither of these foods have the vitamins in the abundance that milk shows.

If comparisons are fair, doesn't it behoove the American parent to see that their children are given those things which will build sturdy bodies and alert minds?

Give the kiddies plenty of our milk—and often as they will drink it.

Better Marks Follow Better Dressed Children

We hear a lot these days of the effect of better appearance on the work done by men and women. By the same logic your child will do better in school if he or she is as well dressed as the child sitting near. And it is easy to dress the children nicely, economically and sturdily when you consider the pains we have taken to help you.

How Lovely the School Girls Will Look in These NEW DRESSES

What a glorious parade of youthful beauty these dresses will make when the streets are all abloom with girls on their way to school! Mothers will look from doors and windows with gratifying pride over their own daughters, and the charming girls with whom they associate. You'll find here exactly the Dresses that will make YOUR girls shine among their schoolmates. Bring daughter in and see. They are priced in all sizes from 6 to 14 years at $1.00 up. ## RADIO CONTROL

The third national radio conference, called by Secretary Hoover to meet in Washington September 30th, will discuss matters of interest to every person interested in radio, including a great army of amateurs and mere listeners.

The great problem is to make broadcasting more effective. Various means are suggested for this purpose. Present wave-lengths may be changed to avoid interference among stations using wave-lengths too close together. There may be a greater use made of shorter wave-lengths or high frequencies, which are now giving remarkable results in experimental work. Broadcasting stations may be re-classified and many of them discontinued. Means may be found for eliminating a good deal of the electrical interference from outside sources.

Perhaps the suggestions of most general interest are these: Inter-connection of broadcasting stations, limitation of power, division of time and zoning of broadcasting stations. Action along these lines might be revolutionary.

There is already considerable broadcasting by "interconnection", the two or more stations sending out the same program being usually connected by a land wire, although a station may amplify and relay a program received by air. This method is capable of great development, and is likely to grow with the natural merging of radio interests.

By limiting the power of sending stations, and dividing their time and territory, local broadcasting would be facilitated. Powerful stations from a distance would no longer be able to break in so easily. The "distance hounds" would be discouraged. This would be a more democratic arrangement, but would not promise the big, expensive and high-class programs possible to a group of stations broadcasting at once.

Fiftieth Annual

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. K. Gibson.

Wednesday Morning

The session opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. Lisle. This was followed by the Semi-Centennial exercises, H. B. Powell presiding.

The principal address was made by J. Frank Snyder, Esq., and it was an admirable address throughout. We can trace the Sunday School back to A. D. 150. When Martin Luther started Sunday Schools in 1520, he laid a stone in the foundation of the modern Sunday School.

Clearfield county was started in 1804. The county was organized for all purposes in October, 1822. The first Sunday School was held in the county in 1824. It was held at the home of Thomas McClure, May 23, 1824.

In 1809 the Church began to assume control of the Sunday Schools and the instruction became religious. Our system of Common School education was adopted in 1824. There were five Sunday Schools in Clearfield county in 1824; Clearfield, Clearfield Bridge, Clearfield Ridge, Mt. Pleasant near Utahville. Gulich township was named after G. Philip Gulich, one of these five Superintendents.

The Clearfield Auxiliary to the American Sunday School Union was formed in 1842 in the Clearfield Academy. In 1847 there were ten Sunday Schools on Clearfield circuit of the M. E. Church. The Clearfield County Sunday School Association was organized fifty years ago.

Miss Nellie Bird, for twenty-one years Corresponding Secretary of Clearfield County read an admirable paper. She spoke of her experiences covering twenty-one years as Secretary of the County Association. The first convention was held in Clearfield in 1874. She attended her first convention in Kylertown in 1882, which was the 8th annual county convention. There were 88 Sunday Schools enrolled in the county when she became Corresponding Secretary in 1897. There were over 100 delegates at the 25th annual convention held in Clearfield in 1899.

Brief tributes were paid Lucien

Bird, Thomas H. Murray, J. S. McGreey and Daniel W. McCurdy. B. A. McGarvey made a short address entitled "Mission in the Church School."

Dr. H. L. Jacobs, pastor of Trinity M. E. church, made the closing address. In the study of the Bible, we have learned history. In the committing of the Bible, we have acquired more power. The old time method in the Sunday School produced indoctrination. We are developing too much Christian education on the natural man, which means superficial goodness. We must center all our activities on youth. The Christ should be more of a force than a field. We must challenge our youth and stress them for tomorrow.

The session closed with the benediction by Rev. N. B. Smith.

Wednesday Afternoon

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. H. J. Baker.

Two strong addresses on "Teacher Training" were delivered by Rev. Walter Williams and Rev. W. L. Armstrong. With 223 Sunday Schools, we have only 20 Teacher Training Classes.

At this point the Convention divided into two conferences. One on Young Peoples Work led by B. A. McGarvey; Adult Work led by Walter A. Myers, State Secretary.

Wednesday Evening

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. S. R. Alban, pastor of the United Brethren Church.

Two strong addresses were delivered by Rev. D. B. Kinsey and State Secretary Walter E. Myers. They emphasized "The work of the Adult class in the Sunday School and the Community."

The Convention was very helpful and instructive throughout but not as largely attended as usual.

"THE WHITE ROSE" A BEAUTIFUL PICTURE

"The White Rose" a feature film at The Driggs tonight is declared by those who saw it last evening to be one of the most true to life portrayals of human weaknesses and frailties ever filmed. Likewise it portrays the virtues of forgiveness through love in a manner that sends everybody away happy after having witnessed a soul stirring drama. Truly it is the type of film that can do naught but good.

NO EXCUSES

By FLORENCE DAVIES

"If you're looking around for an excuse, can girls be proud of, don't forget to include Helen Wills."

Helen Wills is only a girl, but already a veteran sport writer has called her a truly great tennis player. That in itself is one reason why we should all be proud of her, but it isn't the only reason. The real reason is the fact that she has learned so early in life not to make excuses. Before she went to Paris to take part in the Olympics she played at Wimbledon, England, and was defeated.

To date no one has been able to discover that she had a sore throat, a sprained wrist, got out of bed on the wrong side that morning or was unfortunate in letting a black cat cross her path. Not a bit of it.

"I enjoyed the game immensely," said Miss Wills in talking about that defeat. "In fact, most of the time I thought I was going to win. Just how I lost my big lead I'll never be able to say; however, I'm not a bit tired and quite ready for the next match."

In other words, "It was a good game, but I lost, and that's that. But in spite of losing I'm feeling fine and ready for the next thing."

Any one who loses in that spirit is more than likely to win the next time. Going through life on excuses is about the best way I know of getting nowhere.

Why is it that you don't do the best that lies in you? Did you ever ask yourself that question? Of course you have, and the chances are that you answer it right away with something like this: My people couldn't give me an education. I never had a chance—I really inherited a weak constitution—You see I wasn't feeling well that day—This isn't the work that is suited to me—The other people in this department have had a lot more training—or, last and worst, "I haven't got a stand-in with the boss."

Just alibis, every one of them. Some of these facts may be true. But the thing that the excuse-makers do not see is that every one has the same handicap to overcome. Life isn't perfect for anyone. If you had had a better education you might never have had as good an opportunity to develop initiative, and so it goes all down the list. An alibi is just an alibi at best, while facts are facts. Did you win or lose, that's the question?

If you lose, and excuse yourself, you don't stand much better chance of winning the next time. If you lose and look facts in the face, you have the start on your enemy to begin with, because you know he has whipped you once and it's up to you to do better the next time.

Miss Wills lost at Wimbledon, but it was a good game all the way through. She had a fine time playing it. That was because she put the best she had into it. That best wasn't quite good enough. She found that out and admitted it. A spirit like that won't stay a loser long.

TWO COURTS IN SESSION

Judge A. S. Heck, of Potter county, is assisting Judge Chase at September term civil court this week and two courts were in session yesterday.

In the court room Judge Chase presided over an ejectment suit from Du Bois, in which the litigants were Agnes Alexander against Wilhelm and Charles Smith. The difficulty arises over the ownership of a driveway into the Alexander property which was fenced up by the Smiths. The attorneys interested are Pentz & Pentz, Miller & Hartwick and Arnold & Platt and Judge Bell.

Judge Heck, occupying the Arbitration Room with his court, heard the case of D. Zeigler vs. Charles and Ed Gutowsky. The attorneys represented were Liveright & Chase and J. Mitchell Chase.

A number of the cases on the list for this week have been settled.

Thoughts Of A Lost Diamond Pin—

"This is terrible—being stuck away in some strange man's pocket. It's dark and close in here and I'm half covered with smelly tobacco. Awful!"

"I'll never get over this experience—lying in the dust on a street-corner and having that policeman step on me and bend my back almost double! Oh dear!"

"I don't suppose I'll ever see my owner again. She must be crying her eyes out over losing me. She was very fond of me. Oh, I'm miserable!"

"There, that's better. He's just pulled me out into the fresh air again. What's that? He has the Progress in his other hand. He says I must be the pin, all right—that me might as well take me around there right away. What's he talking about?"

"Now I know what's up! I feel like a new pin already. I'm going home to my owner! She advertised for me in the Lost and Found column of the Progress."

"I might have known that!"

'LEATHERNECK' NOW CONTROLS HERRIN, KLAN STORM CENTER

Bellicose Citizens Are Warned In Emphatic
Language They Are to Mind Own Business.

SHERIFF IS ROUTED

By BENSON PRATT

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Herrin, Ill., Sept. 4.—Williamson county awoke today to find itself in the grip of a strong hand of authority and it is still a little bewildered by its sudden and somewhat dramatic lesson in law enforcement.

That lesson was given last night when a man learned his methods in the "devil dog" Marines, quietly left his place at a dinner table, took "bloody Williamson" by the neck and said in substance:

"You watch your step."

This morning the community is "watching its step."

The man who gave the order is Captain Harold Bigelow, Company 1, Illinois national guard, of Salem, Ill., commanding the militia detail of 17 men left at Herrin by Adjutant General Carlos E. Black.

Captain Bigelow laid down a "peace program," which is essentially as follows:

Both factions in the county's feud are still excited. Unless each is careful, either side may do something to regret. Therefore, each side must come where the difference can be settled by arbitration, keep members of the opposing factions apart.

"The first man who does anything to suggest will hear from me," Captain Bigelow told both sides, and they knew he meant what he said—he is that kind of a man.

The thing which precipitated the action is supposed to have been the appearance in Herrin last night of Ora Thomas, deputy of Sheriff Galloway, who, with Galloway, is blamed by the opposing faction for much of Williamson county's trouble. He was wounded in last Saturday's rioting in which six were killed.

Word of his presence in Herrin spread about the city like wildfire. When he visited the hospital of Dr. J. T. Black, close friend of Galloway in which Herman Phemister, an "anti-killer," was wounded, groups of men gathered about the institution. The hospital, which is reputed to be used as a haven of refuge many times by Galloway, has on many occasions been "brought up" and as more and more men gathered near it, the situation again became tense.

Then Captain Bigelow heard what was going on. He left his dinner table and went to the hospital. He dispersed the groups gathered there and then went looking for Thomas, who had left before his arrival.

"Get back to Marion," was his order to Thomas, and Thomas "got."

Not satisfied, Captain Bigelow followed. There was a brief conference with the sheriff.

"Stay on your own side of the fence until this excitement dies down," he told the sheriff. "Keep your men here in Marion and don't come to Herrin."

The sheriff promised.

Discussing his plan later, Captain Bigelow said:

"At present the feeling here is too tense. It would require only a spark to start the powder train. I am going to do what I can to quench that spark. I intend to recommend that troops be kept in Herrin until after the preliminary hearing of Dr. Black on the murder charge Sept. 12. I have made no threats and I intend to make none but you can say for me that law and order will prevail."

This morning, the coroner's inquest into the killing Saturday was resumed.

POPULAR COUPLE MARRIED AT HOWARD

Roland M. McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McDowell, of Woodland, Pa., and Miss Isabel E. Meador, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Meador, of Clearfield, Pa., were united in marriage by the bride's former pastor, Rev. Arthur A. Price in the Methodist parsonage, at Howard, Pa. Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 2nd, 1924. The ring ceremony being used. Mr. McDowell is employed by the P. R. R. company at Woodland and is a highly respected young man. Miss Meador is the efficient bookkeeper at the H. J. Flegel and sons clothing store of Clearfield and a very highly esteemed young lady. They will visit cities in Pennsylvania and New York States on their honeymoon trip. They have the best

BOSTON IS NEXT STOP OF WORLD FLYERS; HOP OFF TOMORROW

On Board U. S. Cruiser Richmond, off Pictou, Nova Scotia, Sept. 3.—(By wireless to International News Service.)—Lieutenants Lowell Smith and Erik Nelson, United States Army aviators, who are on the last long lap of their round-the-world flight, rested here today while their planes were overhauled and minor repairs were made.

This is the flyers' last stop before reaching United States Soil. They hope to hop-off for Boston, 520 miles away, tomorrow morning or Saturday.

"It will be good to be flying over Uncle Sam's territory once again," commented Smith.

The 420-mile hop from Hawks Bay to Pictou was made in six hours and 26 minutes, the flyers arriving at 4:33 o'clock Eastern Standard time. Part of the flight was made through a rain storm but with favorable wind blowing from behind.

When Smith and Nelson leave Pictou they will be accompanied by Lieut. Leigh Wade, who fell into the sea between the Orkney Islands and Iceland. A plane is awaiting at Pictou to replace the one lost at sea.

Keating Youth Awarded $25 For Thoughtfulness In Reporting Trouble

All corporations are not altogether heartless and soulless, as some of these "soap box orator statesmen" want you to believe at times. This is often substantially attested to by the action of some of these corporations which "come within" our own knowledge. A case of this kind occurred today in our reckoning.

On June 30th last, as John Burfield, the young son of N. Y. C. Track Foreman Burfield at Keating, was walking along the River Line track in that section, he happened to note a break or crack in one of the rails. The lad found the break a few minutes before the afternoon passenger train traveling toward Clearfield was due. Knowing that a wreck was bound to occur if the train reached that broken rail, the lad ran to the house of W. E. Lananger, a telegraph operator who lived some distance away. Lananger, who was on night turn, was sleeping at the time, but Burfield told Mrs. Lananger of the state of affairs and asked her to awaken her husband, as his help was needed.

Lananger was apprised of the situation and hurriedly arising got to the place where the rail was broken just in the nick of time to flag the passenger train and avoid a wreck.

Trainmaster Phil Barrow happened to be a passenger on the train and he at once reported the matter to his superiors. Yesterday Mr. Barrow received a letter from Trainmaster W. A. Hamler at Jersey Shore, enclosing a New York Central check for $25 in favor of John Burfield, the letter directing Mr. Barrow to present same to young Burfield with the thanks of the New York Central as an appreciation of his thoughtfulness and prompt action.

Dive Into Tank Is Fatal To Musical Comedy Girl At Philadelphia Theatre

Philadelphia, O., Sept. 4. (INS.)—While diving into a tank of water during a final rehearsal of the musical comedy, "Dear Sir," here last night, Miss Meta Van Hedenkemp, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a member of the chorus, received injuries that may result in her death. She is at Jefferson hospital here suffering from a fractured skull and spinal injuries.

It is believed the girl struck her head against the side of the tank during the dive. She was rescued by stage hands.

Last night was the girl's first performance of the act in public. She joined the show originally as a chorus girl but pleaded with the management for a chance to show her diving skill. They were impressed and the diving scene was added to the show.

Miss Laura Iryin of Lock Haven left for Pottersdale, where she will teach after spending a week with Mrs. C. F. Derrick and Mrs. James Thompson, of this place.

M. O. A. Sahn and family have returned from a motor trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Kramer returned today from a visit to Atlantic

We Won The Pennant, Now Let Us Be Sports And Make Up Deficit

The Clearfield baseball team won the pennant in the C. & C. League this season, the first for this league. The boys "brought home the bacon" in fine style and conducted themselves at all times, both on and off the field, in a highly creditable manner.

The team was composed entirely of "home talent" and played a good baseball as a lot of these expensive semi-pro and "has been" teams of the past. The players were promised a small remuneration for each game, which was paid out of a small fund contributed before the season opened and the surplus gate receipts after the expenses of the home games were paid.

By reason of the three weeks of no home games due to wet weather, the club got in the hole financially to the tune of about $500 and the business management of the club is confronted with the problem of securing or making up this shortage in order that the laborer may be paid his hire and all outstanding obligations taken care of.

To that end the fans who enjoyed the game and all public-spirited citizens who appreciated what the boys did for old Clearfield in the League, are requested to show their appreciation of the efforts of these young men—every man a worker who needs his daily wage, by contributing toward this needed fund. It won't take many or very large contributions, but the sum should be made up at once. Fifty men at $10 apiece or one hundred at $5.00 each will solve the problem. Or more contributors at smaller amounts will do it. But at any event it should be done and done quickly at that. Who will be the first to start?

President Pearce or Business Manager Haggerty will receive your contributions or you can send or hand them in at the Progress office. Let us all get busy quickly and discharge this obligation against the town.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A very delightful birthday party was held Aug. 31, 1924, in honor of Aaron G. Donley at his home in Grampian. The following brothers and sisters were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Donley and family, of Grampian; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phillips and family of Julian, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Monroe W. Montague and family of Clearfield; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Kramer and family, of Clearfield; Clyde and John Donley, of Julian, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Donley and daughter Francis, of Clearfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer and daughter Clara, of Grampian, who are neighbors. There were 27 present and all had a very enjoyable day. One and all wish Mr. Donley a very prosperous year until next August 31.

WILLIAM LITZ PASSES AWAY

William Litz, a life long resident of this section and an employee of the Clearfield Clay Working Company and Crescent Refractories Company at Reedsville for many years, passed away at his home on Spruce street about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon as the result of an extended illness, aged about 70 years.

He is survived by his widow and one son by a previous marriage, A. B. Litz, of Bradford, Pa.

The funeral will be held from his late home Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

WEDDINGS AT TRINITY

In Trinity Methodist Church, the pastor, Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, married with the ring ceremony, Tuesday, Sept. 2, at high noon, Thomas Henry Stephenson, of Youngstown, Ohio, and Georgia Lorena Sheesley, of DuBois, Pa. After visiting among friends until Thursday, the happy couple will motor to Youngstown, O., where a furnished home awaits their coming.

Wednesday, September 3rd, at high noon, Ralph Edgar Shultz, of Phillipsburg, and Florence Estella Warren, of Wallacetown, Pa. The groom's father witnessed the ceremony.

MRS. LUTHER ROWLES FUNERAL

The funeral of the late Mrs. Luther Rowles, of Paradise, will be held from the Gillingham Church at Odessa on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Gillingham.

Mrs. Luella Wingert of DuBois is spending the week with Mrs. Marvin Bowes.

Miss Madeline Caldwell is leaving for Akron, Ohio, where she will be joining her family from Indiana, where she is

BORAH SAYS FIGHT IN WEST IS BETWEEN ROBERT AND CALVIN

By ARTHUR STROWE

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

(Copyright, 1924, International News Service) Chicago, Sept. 4.—The Presidential contest in the middle west now lies between Calvin Coolidge and Robert M. La Follette.

Senator William E. Borah, noted independent leader, made this declaration today in an exclusive interview with International News Service. Borah based his statement upon a first-hand survey of political conditions throughout the agricultural west. He declined, however, to predict the outcome in November.

Borah indicated that John W. Davis, the Democratic nominee, was running a poor third but he emphasized the fact that his views were based upon present conditions. He voiced the opinion that the pending speech-making tour of Davis, through the corn and wheat belts might materially increase his strength and change the political alignments.

This survey of the Presidential race west of the Mississippi was the first political interview given by Borah since he flatly rejected the Republican presidential nomination after it was tendered him by leaders at the Cleveland convention. At that time Borah declared he desired to remain in the Senate and would confine his political activities in the coming campaign to his own race for re-election.

"At the present time," said Borah, "The Presidential contest in the middle west is between President Coolidge and Senator La Follette, both have strong followings among the voters."

"Mr. Davis is not yet very well known throughout the west. He has started with his handicap and he is noticeable in the present situation."

Borah declared the voters of the west were rather apathetic about the Presidential race at the present time. "The west has suffered from a fearful drought and the people are more concerned about their personal fortunes," he explained, "when the present agricultural situation abates I believe the people will take a real interest in the race. I expect the race in the campaign to be very tense and up until election day."

Borah came to Chicago to organize the Senate's special campaign fund investigating committee of which he is chairman. Up until the present time, Borah said, none of the three Presidential campaign committees has made any progress in a financial way.

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION

C. A. Missimer, of Everett, Washington, arrived in the East after being away for fifty-five years. He is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. L. Henderson, whom he had never seen, as she was not born when he left home. "Tenn" being mistaken for "Penn" Mr. Missimer's family lost all trace of him and stopped writing about twenty years ago. Fifteen years ago they heard he was dead and have mourned for him since that time.

This year when he returned to Jersey Shore he had the experience of Rip Van Winkle trying to find some of his family or even anyone who knew them. Finally he was told a cousin of his lived in the town. He called on her and found her to be Mrs. Burton Rowles. After he had succeeded in convincing her that he was not dead he was able thro her to locate the rest of his family, several of whom live in Clearfield. The telephone message from Mrs. Rowles to Mrs. Henderson stating that "your dead brother is here" gave her a decided shock.

Mr. Missimer is proving that he is not a "dead one" by enjoying life to its utmost and especially by renewing his family ties and old time friendships.

RELATED WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

Charles Hoyer announces the marriage of his daughter, Pearl Edna Hoyer, to James Thompson, of Martin street, Clearfield, April 19, 1924.

SPECIAL GOSPEL SERVICE

There will be a special Gospel service at Mineral Springs Park on Friday September 5th, at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. A. N. Salvia of Clearfield will preach. The old Gospel will be preached, and also special singing. All are cordially invited.

The service will be held in the building. Mrs. C. F. Parzen returned last night from a visit to her family in

'Fun' On The Highway Is Pretty Costly To Bunch Along The Moshannon

Pennsylvania's state highways, in Clearfield county at least, are going to be made safe for Democrats and everybody else for that matter, if Constable Emil Carlson or the Fourth Ward, himself a valued employee of the State Highway Department, can make it so. Constable Carlson is seeing to it that motorists obey the motor laws while cavorting about over Clearfield county.

The latest Clearfield county residents to feel the grip of the strong arm of the law for getting "stuck" on the highways, were a bunch of motorists from the Cooper and Morris sections. On Thursday last a party consisting of William Lord and David Lord, of Allport; Fingle Segerpalm, of Winburne; John Stonebreaker, of Hawk Run, are said to have had a lot of fun on the road between Kyrletown and Moshannon. One of their tires had a puncture and while repairing it the "very funny" young men are said to have made it a practice of stopping every motorist happening along.

Road Foreman Kephart and three of his crew came along and were held up by the tire fixers. The men were alleged to have been drinking and Malloy represented himself to be a state policeman. When Kephart requested him to show his badge Malloy said he didn't have one but could take the road foreman up on the bank and kick him. Kephart secured a pick handle and was about to "clean house" with the gang when wiser counsel on the part of his men prevailed and hostilities were averted.

Information was made against all six men and all, with the exception of Segerpalm, who is away from home, were arrested by Constable Carlson yesterday, and when taken before Justice Chorpene each paid a fine and costs amounting to $17.50.

A further charge of impersonating an officer was lodged against Malloy and he was remanded to jail in default of bail.

BLAINE IS WINNER IN WISCONSIN BY A 60,000 MAJORITY

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 4. (INS.)—Victory to all except one of the candidates bearing the stamp of approval of Senator Robert M. La Follette was conceded today with returns from Tuesday's State primary election virtually complete.

In the gubernatorial race, figures for 2,435 of the state's 2878 precincts gave Gov. John J. Blaine, La Follette's candidate, 212,035; Arthur Cohnst, 147,062 and Lieut. Gov. Hastings 38,418.

In the fifth Congressional district where L. A. Braun was nominated to contest the seat of Victor Berger, Socialist, La Follette met his only defeat.

Rotarians Given Lesson In Optimism By Youth Blind Since 4 Years Old

Clearfield Rotarians were given a lesson in optimism last evening at their regular weekly meeting at the Jordan, the teacher of such lesson being Kenneth Gearhart, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gearhart, of near Bigler, who was introduced by P. J. Geo. Thurston. Young Gearhart, a strapping big lad, has been totally blind since four years of age as the result of falling and running a knife blade in one of his eyes. Despite what we ordinarily regard as a heart-crushing handicap, the young man has pluckily made his way in the world for the past 15 dark years very much as the lad with sight has done. He has acquired both a common and a high school education and he expressed it in talking to Rotary last evening, has got his full measure of fun and pleasure out of the world. He spoke cheerfully of his efforts to make his way in the world and gave a most interesting talk on his experiences, his ability to ride a bicycle over the country road between his home and the village of Bigler, more than a mile distant, together with his experiences at the Overbrook School for the Blind, Philadelphia High School, and in the Philadelphia School of Osteopathy, where he has been a student the past year as the start of a four year term. At the completion of his college course and the securing of his degree or diploma, the young man expects to open an office in Clearfield for the practice of his profession.

During the course of his remarks, the young man explained the Braille system, used in the educating of the blind and made a bit with his telling of how the blind "saw."

FIFTIETH ANNUAL COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION HEARS REVIEW OF FIFTY YEARS OF STEADY MARCH FORWARD

N. E. Shimmel of West Decatur Is Elected To Head The Association During 1925; Held Two Day Session.

TRIBUTE TO S. C. WATTS

The semi-centennial convention of the Clearfield County Sabbath School Association closed its business at Trinity M. E. Church yesterday afternoon by adopting a recommendation to the executive committee calling for the appointment of a county field worker. This recommendation was adopted as a part of the report of the nominating committee and was made with the idea that the work of this field worker during the coming year would make the next county convention greater in scope and interest than the one just past or any held previously. Appointed by the officers of the County Association and paid by this association, the field worker will visit Sunday Schools, arrange district conventions, and point the work of the year toward the next county convention, which will be held at Morrisdale.

Officers for the coming year were elected in accordance with the report of the nominating committee, as follows: President, N. E. Shimmel, of West Decatur; vice president, H. B. Powell, Clearfield; recording secretary, Rev. J. P. McCurdy, Clearfield; corresponding and statistical secretary, Miss Stella Sankey, Goshen; treasurer, R. M. Haney, Clearfield; Superintendent of the various departments elected were: Administration, Rev. B. P. Hilbish, Mahaffey; Children's Division, Mrs. A. B. Lansberry, Woodland; Young People, Rev. J. Earl Gindelsperger, Brisbin; Adult, E. L. Peterson, Clearfield; Home Department, Mrs. Vance Welch, Clearfield; Temperance, Mrs. R. L. Cathcart, Clearfield; Teacher Training, Rev. Walter H. Williams Houtzdale; Education, Rev. William L. Armstrong, Clearfield; Missionary, Rev. E. Roy Hauser, Clearfield; Publicity, Rev. W. L. Cruthers, Clearfield.

Walter E. Myers, Secretary Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association made the address at the closing session of the convention last evening. His talk on the need of trained leaders and the work of the trained leader carried a message of optimism for the task of the present day Sunday School.

The 50th Annual Sunday School Convention of Clearfield County was called to order in Trinity M. E. church Tuesday, September 2, at 10:30 a. m. with President N. E. Shimmel in the Chair. A short devotional service was held and Dr. John C. Collins, lead in prayer. The President made his annual address and H. B. Powell, vice President of the association, made a short address of welcome. Dr. Valentine spoke on The Near East Relief and State Field Worker B. A. McGarvey made a short address.

Tuesday Afternoon

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. W. L. Cruthers, pastor of the Baptist Church. A Memorial service was held for our late beloved President, S. C. Watts. The principal address was made by Dr. John C. Collins who was Mr. Watts' pastor for a number of years. Among other things, he said: "It is no little thing for a community to produce a man like S. C. Watts. He was unusual. I regarded him as the first man in the Curwensville Methodist Church. We began to discover his worth when he had gone away from us. We have not found a man to be what he was and do what he did. Life might have been a little easier for him if he had had a sense of humor. His home was in the moral realm and there he achieved victories for his Master."

"He was a man of mentality. He was an editor, writer, farmer, musician, traveler, and preacher. He was a great thinker and possessed an intellectual honesty. He excelled as a teacher. He thought through a number of moral and religious problems. He was kind and loving and sympathetic toward those who did not think as he did."

"There was not any man in the county who gave more time to the Kingdom of God than he did. He was liberal with his money. He was a father. He was broad in his sympathy. He was a good man in the high sense of the word. He was fine gold all through. His moral integrity was like

PENNSY-GRAMS

Pittsburgh—Little Jean Layman, year old daughter of William Layman of Braddock, is today again playing with her baby sister June, aged 1, after falling 22 feet from the roof of her home yesterday. The child only suffered a few bruises about her arms and body. Jean tossed her sister's milk bottle from the roof and while looking over the edge of the roof lost her balance and fell to the ground, landing among the broken bits of the bottle. When picked up she was only scratched a little and wondered what the fuss was all about.

Butler—When her husband completes his six months prison term December 1 for violation of liquor law, Mrs. Mart Benchuk will begin her one year sentence in the Allegheny county workhouse on the same charge. After Judge Henningsen fined the woman $800 and sentenced her yesterday her husband could come home and care for their two children and their home.

Conneaut Lake Park—George Brown, of Meadville, is dead here today. The automobile in which he was riding was struck late yesterday by a Meadville and Linesville train at a crossing near here killing him almost instantly, according to train officials.

Philadelphia—Two bandits entered a haberdashery here yesterday just at closing time forced three clerks and a customer into a rear room and then bound them with neckties from the stock. They got $60 in cash and a quantity of clothing.

Philadelphia—Their faces covered with burned cork, four bandits held up three members of a Building and Loan Association as they emerged from a meeting late last night and robbed them of $2,100 in cash and a number of checks and loan certificate books.

Philadelphia—A new war on bootleggers was started by Safety Director Butler yesterday co-operating with Federal officers. It is said an attempt will be made to capture six big alcohol dealers believed to be supplying bootleggers from goods obtained on government permits.

Washington—Willbur Mickey, 12, and Charles Goff, 7, are said to be recovering today from snake bites received last night near here. The two boys were attacked by a copperhead snake when they stepped on the reptile in the dark. Both youths were bitten between the ankle and knee. Dr. W. J. Hawkins who attended the victims said they were out of danger.

reminded me more of my Master than any man I ever knew.

Brief tributes were paid to his memory by Mrs. Ferguson, H. B. Powell and Miss Nellie Bird. A number of appropriate hymns were sung and Rev. Walter Williams lead in prayer. Rev. A. M. Greenfield, Boy Scout Executive from the Philadelphia district was introduced and made a short address. It is pretty near time for the Church to give the boy the thrill of the Church. The boy has his own ideas of religion. He wants something tangible, something that he can feel. The boy is not reading his Bible half as much as he is reading you.

R. A. McGarvey, State Field Worker, occupied the last period. He conducted a general conference. Our task is to help the teachers find themselves. Rev. O. B. Poulson made the last address. He emphasized fixed habits of the mind.

The Chair appointed the committee on nomination Rev. F. H. Hilbish, Mrs. Reas Spackman, Rev. M. S. McKitt, H. L. Shaw.

The benediction by Rev. J. P. McCurdy brought the session to a close.

Tuesday Evening

The devotional exercises were led by Rev. C. K. Gibson, pastor of the Eleventh Street M. E. Church.

The Chair announced the following committees:

Resolution: Rev. N. B. Smith, Nellie Bird, Rev. J. E. Gingerberger.

Place of meeting: H. B. Powell, and J. V. Knepp.

There were two special musical numbers of exceptional worth, a duet by Mrs. Paul Stauffer and Mrs. Emmott Harder; a solo by Mrs. Keith Davis with violin obligato.

Two strong addresses were delivered by B. A. McGarvey, Training our Future Leaders; Rev. O. B. Poulson, "Introducing our great Com-

Curwensville's Own Column

Sidney Korb, son of Constable Korb, leaves today for Harrisburg, where he will enter as a student at Beekley Business College, being his second term.

Relatives here have received word from Portland, Oregon, that Mrs. Lottie Lupter had the misfortune to fall at her home and dislocate one of her hips. She was taken to one of the hospitals for treatment. The lady before her marriage was Miss Eckbert, and for some years taught in Curwensville public schools. She is a sister of Mrs. Al Frank, this place.

L. V. Vaughn, who believes everyone to be honest, left a fine pair of wadded blankets out on the line over night. Next morning the line was there but the blankets had been removed by some ornery cuss or other for his own use.

Captain Kratzer, one of the oldest citizens of our town, and an old soldier of the civil war with an enviable record for bravery during his five years of service, attended the gathering of old civil war veterans held at Philipsburg today. Some half dozen vets from this town and neighborhood were in attendance.

C. H. Plummer, assistant superintendent at the Penna. H. & L. tannery, has returned from a trip to New Jersey, bringing back with him his family, who will reside in Curwensville, locating in the Patton homestead, on State street.

Miss Dorothy Milliron has gone to a missionary training institute in New York state, where she will attend for a year or longer.

James R. Caldwell, who lives in his home with a daughter, Tyrone, is spending the week in Curwensville and vicinity. The 'Squire is one of those old natives who will not miss a picnic or gathering of any description if he can possibly get there. He is well versed in the four generations of every native family within a radius of ten miles of Curwensville.

Sam and Tony Errigo have gone to Philadelphia, where they have secured employment.

Orville and Joe Hipps have gone to Grove City, where they will attend school during the winter.

William MacTavish, who resides at Niles, O., was a Curwensville visitor the fore part of the week, stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tavish MacTavish, corner State and Walnut streets.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Bad eyes make bad men! Fifty per cent of the criminality and insanity of the United States could be eliminated if everybody received proper eye treatment in childhood. Every advance in civilization increases the proportion in criminals and weaklings—all directly traceable to improper care of the eyes.

More than 60 per cent of elementary and secondary school children in this country have defects that need correction. Six million children or 25 per cent of the total public school population, are suffering from impaired vision to such an extent as to handicap them in acquiring an education.

Ninety per cent of the industrial accidents as well as motor car train wrecks are due to poor eyes.

These are some of the startling statements in the recent report of the Eye Sight Conservation of America, which has completed an exhaustive investigation of the condition of people's eyes in this country. In other words, they believe that only by discovering and correcting eye defects in the youth of the nation can it be saved from optical and therefore mental deterioration.

With an increasing higher specialization in occupations, high illumination in cities and our mechanical devices, we are rapidly building up a condition of strain which can only result in more criminals and insane, experts say, unless we adopt some method of overcoming this tremendous strain which the eyes were never fitted to stand.

Eye strain brings bad health, nervousness, insomnia and other conditions which may result in insanity. Neglect of the child's eyes when he is in the earlier grades of school is apt to effect his entire health and career, the Council avers. Unable to keep up with the other pupils, the child usually drops out of school before he has completed the elementary grades. Without the training or discipline of school life, knowing no trade, and always irritated by eye strain, he becomes a hanger-on on the fringe of society, susceptible to any temptation for making easy money. Neglect of eyes in youth is held responsible by the Council for more than the inmates of our penal institutions.

Yet the school authorities remain largely unaware of the dangers of defective vision among school children. The Council found that, on an average, only 17 per cent of public school children received eye tests in 1923. This average for the entire country would be considerably below 17 per cent.

BEFORE TWINS WERE BORN

Was Very Miserable. Felt Lots Better After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

WYOMING, Wisconsin.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my twins were born because my sister used it and recommended it to me. I was so I could scarcely go about my daily work I was in such misery. But after I began taking the second bottle I was feeling lots better. I took three bottles and a half before I was confined and finished the bottle while I was in bed. I got up feeling fine and have taken care of the twins alone ever since. I recommend the Vegetable Compound highly and will sing its praises in the future."

Mrs. Ida G. Gartz, Wyoming, Wis. It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after child-birth, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother both before and after child-birth. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It can be taken in safety by nursing mothers.

SPORT NEWS

New York, Sept. 4 (INS).—The hot pennant fights in the two big leagues remain practically stationary, after yesterday's games, with the Yankees in the American League and the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League registering slight gains.

Today the New York Giants still lead the procession in the older league by the margin of a game over Pittsburgh but Pittsburgh lost half a game to the fast coming Dodgers when the latter scored a double barreled victory over the Phillies while the Pirates were winning only one from St. Louis. The Dodgers are now only half a game behind the Pirates and a game and a half back of the leaders.

The Yankees crept up on the Senators in the American League by winning from Boston while the Senators were idle. The latter lead the league a game.

The on-rushing Dodgers made it 11 straight by taking another, double-header from the Phillies 7 to 6 and 7 to 0, and are now less than two games astern of the Giants. Dores allowed only two hits and Wheat collected two homers in the nightcap.

Dr. Neft was called into consultation for the ailing Giants and beat the Braves, 4 to 1, holding them hitless after the first inning and keeping the champions in front by one game.

Pittsburgh clung to second place by mauling the Cardinals 14 to 1, but failed to gain on the Giants.

The Yanks crept up to within a game of the lead by trimming the Red Sox 11 to 6, while Washington was idle. Beall, the $50,000 recruit, did

party is one Charles Kurtz, of Altoona, but when that name appeared in this paper some time ago the intelligent compositor added an "R" to Kurtz and of course that made it Kurtz and Charley has been sandbagged by his safe, sane and conservative old party friends ever since. ## HORSE SHOE CHAMPIONSHIP RACE GETTING CLOSE

The Singles Horse Shoe Tournament for the Championship of Clearfield is half finished, and no doubt will be a close contest towards the end of the series. It is hoped to have the closing games held during the Fair at the Clearfield Driving Park.

Tonight two of the contests and important ones, will be held: Wm. H. Witherow vs. Blake Shugarts and James Hudson, Jr. vs. Les Cowdrick. Darkness in the early evening has hindered contests lately games being held Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, but tonight at dusk the electric lights will be turned on so that all the games can be finished in one evening.

The public are invited to witness the contests tonight beginning at 8:30 o'clock at Wither Park in rear of the High School building. All horse shoe players are especially urged to come as there will be a special meeting following the contest in the Y. M. C. A. building to plan for indoor pitching contests this winter.

Compare Milk-Drinking Nations With Others

Comparisons are odious but here is one striking in the extreme. The Swedish race are large stalwart men—men high in intelligence, sturdy of body, alert of mind, a nation which has had its place in world matters almost since the beginning of time. Then the Japanese—small, undersized as to body, until the past decade considered as a mentally undeveloped nation which was in darkness.

Look into the common foods of the two nations and you find that the chief article of diet of the Swede is milk and of the Jap, fish and rice. The Swedish child gets milk from its earliest infancy and is given milk through the growing years and even in manhood and womanhood, milk is the mainstay of their diet. The Jap gets his bodily needs from more sources—minerals from fish and starch from rice. Neither of these foods have the vitamins in the abundance that milk shows.

If comparisons are fair, doesn't it behoove the American parent to see that their children are given those things which will build sturdy bodies and alert minds?

Give the kiddies plenty of our milk—and often as they will drink it.

RADIO CONTROL

The third national radio conference, called by Secretary Hoover to meet in Washington September 30th, will discuss matters of interest to every person interested in radio, including a great army of amateurs and mere listeners.

The great problem is to make broadcasting more effective. Various means are suggested for this purpose. Present wave-lengths may be changed to avoid interference among stations using wave-lengths too close together. There may be a greater use made of shorter wave-lengths or high frequencies, which are now giving remarkable results in experimental work. Broadcasting stations may be re-classified and many of them discontinued. Means may be found for eliminating a good deal of the electrical interference from outside sources.

Perhaps the suggestions of most general interest are these: Inter-connection of broadcasting stations, limitation of power, division of time and zoning of broadcasting stations. Action along these lines might be revolutionary.

There is already considerable broadcasting by "interconnection", the two or more stations sending out the same program being usually connected by a land wire, although a station may amplify and relay a program received by air. This method is capable of great development, and is likely to grow with the natural merging of radio interests.

By limiting the power of sending stations, and dividing their time and territory, local broadcasting would be facilitated. Powerful stations from a distance would no longer be able to break in so easily. The "distance hounds" would be discouraged. This would be a more democratic arrangement, but would not promise the big, expensive and high-class programs possible to a group of stations broadcasting at once.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. K. Gibson.

Wednesday Morning

The session opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. Lisle. This was followed by the Semi-Centennial exercises, H. B. Powell presiding.

The principal address was made by J. Frank Snyder, Esq., and it was an admirable address throughout. We can trace the Sunday School back to A. D. 150. When Martin Luther started Sunday Schools in 1520, he laid a stone in the foundation of the modern Sunday School.

Clearfield county was started in 1804. The county was organized for all purposes in October, 1822. The first Sunday School was held in the county in 1824. It was held at the home of Thomas McClure, May 23, 1824.

In 1809 the Church began to assume control of the Sunday Schools and the instruction became religious. Our system of Common School education was adopted in 1824. There were five Sunday Schools in Clearfield county in 1824; Clearfield, Clearfield Bridge, Clearfield Ridge, Mt. Pleasant near Utahville. Gulich township was named after G. Philip Gulich, one of these five Superintendents.

The Clearfield Auxiliary to the American Sunday School Union was formed in 1842 in the Clearfield Academy. In 1847 there were ten Sunday Schools on Clearfield circuit of the M. E. Church. The Clearfield County Sunday School Association was organized fifty years ago.

Miss Nellie Bird, for twenty-one years Corresponding Secretary of Clearfield County read an admirable paper. She spoke of her experiences covering twenty-one years as Secretary of the County Association. The first convention was held in Clearfield in 1874. She attended her first convention in Kylertown in 1882, which was the 8th annual county convention. There were 88 Sunday Schools enrolled in the county when she became Corresponding Secretary in 1897. There were over 100 delegates at the 25th annual convention held in Clearfield in 1899.

Brief tributes were paid Lucien

Bird, Thomas H. Murray, J. S. McGreey and Daniel W. McCurdy. B. A. McGarvey made a short address entitled "Mission in the Church School."

Dr. H. L. Jacobs, pastor of Trinity M. E. church, made the closing address. In the study of the Bible, we have learned history. In the committing of the Bible, we have acquired more power. The old time method in the Sunday School produced indoctrination. We are developing too much Christian education on the natural man, which means superficial goodness. We must center all our activities on youth. The Christ should be more of a force than a field. We must challenge our youth and stress them for tomorrow.

The session closed with the benediction by Rev. N. B. Smith.

Wednesday Afternoon

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. H. J. Baker.

Two strong addresses on "Teacher Training" were delivered by Rev. Walter Williams and Rev. W. L. Armstrong. With 223 Sunday Schools, we have only 20 Teacher Training Classes.

At this point the Convention divided into two conferences. One on Young Peoples Work led by B. A. McGarvey; Adult Work led by Walter A. Myers, State Secretary.

Wednesday Evening

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. S. R. Alban, pastor of the United Brethren Church.

Two strong addresses were delivered by Rev. D. B. Kinsey and State Secretary Walter E. Myers. They emphasized "The work of the Adult class in the Sunday School and the Community."

The Convention was very helpful and instructive thruout but not as largely attended as usual.

NO EXCUSES

By FLORENCE DAVIES

"If you're looking around for an excuse, can girls be proud of, don't forget to include Helen Wills."

Helen Wills is only a girl, but already a veteran sport writer has called her a truly great tennis player. That in itself is one reason why we should all be proud of her, but it isn't the only reason. The real reason is the fact that she has learned so early in life not to make excuses. Before she went to Paris to take part in the Olympics she played at Wimbledon, England, and was defeated.

To date no one has been able to discover that she had a sore throat, a sprained wrist, got out of bed on the wrong side that morning or was unfortunate in letting a black cat cross her path. Not a bit of it.

"I enjoyed the game immensely," said Miss Wills in talking about that defeat. "In fact, most of the time I thought I was going to win. Just how I lost my big lead I'll never be able to say; however, I'm not a bit tired and quite ready for the next match."

In other words, "It was a good game, but I lost, and that's that. But in spite of losing I'm feeling fine and ready for the next thing."

Any one who loses in that spirit is more than likely to win the next time. Going through life on excuses is about the best way I know of getting nowhere.

Why is it that you don't do the best that lies in you? Did you ever ask yourself that question? Of course you have, and the chances are that you answer it right away with something like this: My people couldn't give me an education. I never had a chance—I really inherited a weak constitution—You see I wasn't feeling well that day—This isn't the work that is suited to me—The other people in this department have had a lot more training—or, last and worst, "I haven't got a stand-in with the boss."

Just alibis, every one of them. Some of these facts may be true. But the thing that the excuse-makers do not see is that every one has the same handicap to overcome. Life isn't perfect for anyone. If you had had a better education you might never have had as good an opportunity to develop initiative, and so it goes all down the list. An alibi is just an alibi at best, while facts are facts. Did you win or lose, that's the question?

If you lose, and excuse yourself, you don't stand much better chance of winning the next time. If you lose and look facts in the face, you have the start on your enemy to begin with, because you know he has whipped you once and it's up to you to do better the next time.

Miss Wills lost at Wimbledon, but it was a good game all the way thru. She had a fine time playing it. That was because she put the best she had into it. That best wasn't quite good enough. She found that out and admitted it. A spirit like that won't stay a loser long.

TWO COURTS IN SESSION

Judge A. S. Heck, of Potter county, is assisting Judge Chase at September term civil court this week and two courts were in session yesterday.

In the court room Judge Chase presided over an ejectment suit from Du Bois, in which the litigants were Agnes Alexander against Wilhelm and Charles Smith. The difficulty arises over the ownership of a driveway into the Alexander property which was fenced up by the Smiths. The attorneys interested are Pentz & Pentz, Miller & Hartwick and Arnold & Platt and Judge Bell.

Judge Heck, occupying the Arbitration Room with his court, heard the case of D. Zeigler vs. Charles and Ed Gutowsky. The attorneys represented were Liveright & Chase and J. Mitchell Chase.

A number of the cases on the list for this week have been settled.

Thoughts Of A Lost Diamond Pin—

"This is terrible—being stuck away in some strange man's pocket. It's dark and close in here and I'm half covered with smelly tobacco. Awful!"

"I'll never get over this experience—lying in the dust on a street-corner and having that policeman step on me and bend my back almost double! Oh dear!"

"I don't suppose I'll ever see my owner again. She must be crying her eyes out over losing me. She was very fond of me. Oh, I'm miserable!"

"There, that's better. He's just pulled me out into the fresh air again. What's that? He has the Progress in his other hand. He says I must be the pin, all right—that me might as well take me around there right away. What's he talking about?"

"Now I know what's up! I feel like a new pin already. I'm going home to my owner! She advertised for me in the Lost and Found column of the Progress."

"I might have known that!"
